1. INTRODUCTION

- The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the “Act”) was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the “Constitution”) of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- In terms of section 51 of the Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual (“PAIA Manual”).
- Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and / or regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body.

2. PURPOSE OF PAIA MANUAL

- This PAIA Manual is for In2IT Tech (Pty) Ltd (Registration Number: 2013/010878/07) and/or In2IT (Pty) Ltd (Registration Number: 2012/058919/07) referred as “In2IT” or “the Company” to promote the right of access to information, to adopt a culture of transparency and accountability within In2IT by giving the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- Section 9 of the Act recognizes that the right to access information should be subject to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:
 - Limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
 - Commercial confidentiality; and
 - Effective, efficient and good governance;and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.
- This PAIA Manual provides the details of appointed Information Officer (“IO”) and Deputy Information Officer (“DIO”) who will take up the duties to ensure compliance with PAIA and POPIA.

8. REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO A RECORD PROCEDURE

8.1. THE FORM OF REQUEST

- The person making the request is known as the 'requester'.
- PAIA requires requester to submit the request on the required form (prescribed by Regulations) to make a request for access to information.
- The request form C ("Form C") enclosed herewith is the form to be used.

8.2. WHO CAN MAKE PAIA REQUEST

- The requester can be 'Natural person', 'Juristic person' (A business or organization) and 'Authorised person' (An authorized person can request the personal information about the person that has authorised them to do so).

8.3. COMPLETING THE FORM

- In order to complete the PAIA form, requester need to provide sufficient detail to allow the IO to identify the records that the requester seek.
- The current form will require requester to complete the following sections:

Section	Description
Particulars of private body	This section should contain the relevant contact details of the IO and/or DIO.
Particulars of person requesting access to records	This should contain enough information about the requester to make the requester reasonably easy to identify, including the contact details of the requester: postal address, email address, fax and/or telephone number in South Africa. It also asks for requester's identity number to authenticate requester identity. If requester is requesting the information on behalf of someone else or a company, proof of the capacity in which requester is making the request must be provided (as the 'authorised person')
Particulars of person on whose behalf request is made	This section only needs to be completed by a requester who is requesting information for another person.
Particulars of record	This should contain enough information about the record to make it reasonably easy to identify. Additional paper may be used to give more detail of the request, as long as each additional page is signed and attached to the request form. Requester might, for example, include an extract from a report or news story that references the record requester is looking for. It allows requester to include a reference number for the record, if is this applicable.
Fees	A space is provided for requester, to describe why requester believe requester should be exempted from fees.

Form of access to record	This section allows requester to note with an 'X' requester's preferences for the form or manner that the record should be provided in, such as if requester want a copy of a record, or perhaps just an opportunity to inspect the record.
Particulars of right to be exercised or protected	State the right requester is implicating and why the record requester is requesting will help requester either exercise, or protect, that right. Requester must show a connection between the record wanted, and the exercise of the right.
Notice of decision regarding request for access	A space is provided for requester to describe the manner in which requester wish to be informed about the decision to grant or deny the request. Requester can specify for instance that requester would prefer to be contacted by email, or by telephone.

8.4. SUBMISSION OF THE FORM

- Submit the completed form along with proof of identity to the IO or the DIO at the postal or physical address, or electronic mail address as noted in clause 3 above.

8.5. THE FEES INVOLVED

- Generally, fees need to be paid both for making a request, but also to cover the cost of providing access to records in terms of a request.
- IO or DIO to whom a request for access is made must by notice require the requester to pay the prescribed request fees (if any), before further processing the request.
- A request for access to a record, other than a record containing personal information about yourself, will be processed only after a request fee of R50,00 has been paid.
- If IO believes that the search for the record and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than six hours, the IO or DIO shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion (being not more than one-third) of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.
- If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access which is refused, the deposit will be refunded to the requester.
- The IO shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the applicable fees.

- If requester is granted access to the records requested, an IO or DIO can charge requester an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and providing them to requester, but the charges are limited to the following:

Description	Fees to be charged
Copy of an A4-size page or part thereof	R1,10c
Printing per A4 page	R0,75c
Copy on a CD	R70
Transcription of visual images per A4 page	R40
Copy of a visual image	R60
Transcription of an audio record per A4 page	R20
Copy of an audio recording	R30
Search and preparation of the record for disclosure	To search for and prepare the record for disclosure, R30,00 for each hour or part of an hour reasonably required for such search and preparation
Postage	The actual postage is payable.

8.6. TIMELINES FOR PROCESSING

- After the request has been received in full, the Company will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, but under certain circumstances this period may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days. Requester will be notified of such extension, the period of the extension and the reasons for the extension.
- All information as prescribed in the form and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information.

9. RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND OR DO NOT EXIST

- The IO must, if the Company is unable to find the particular records requested or believe that the records do not exist, submit a detailed affidavit to the requester giving notice that the records in question do not exist or cannot be found, but also outline the steps the Company took to try and locate them.
- The notice is to be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned.

- If, after notice is given, the record in question is found, the requester concerned must be given access to the record unless access is refused.

10. DECISION ON REQUEST

- Requester will be notified whether or not the application for request of access is granted or not.
- If the request for access is granted, the notice will state,
 - the access fee (if any) to be paid upon access;
 - the form in which access will be given; and
 - that the requester may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the access fee to be paid or the form of access granted, and the procedure, including the period allowed, for lodging a complaint to the Information Regulator or the application.
- If the request for access is refused, the notice must,
 - state adequate reasons for the refusal, including the provisions of this Act relied on;
 - exclude, from any such reasons, any reference to the content of the record; and
 - state that the requester may lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator or an application with a court against the refusal of the request, and the procedure (including the period) for lodging a complaint to the Information Regulator or the application.

11. FORM OF ACCESS

- If the request for access is granted, the IO will, as soon as reasonably possible after notification give access in-
 - such form as the requester reasonably requires; or
 - if no specific form of access is required by the requester, such form as the IO reasonably determines.

12. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

- The Promotion of Access to Information Act provides several grounds on which a request for access to information must be refused. These grounds mainly concern instances where the privacy and interests of other individuals are protected, where such records are already otherwise publicly available, where public interests are not served, the mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party, and the mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party. A complete list of the grounds for refusal is available in Chapter 4 of the Act.

13. THIRD PARTY NOTIFICATION AND INTERVENTION

- The Company will take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom or which the record relates of the request.
- This notice hopes to give those third parties an opportunity to make their own submissions in relation to whether or not that request should be refused (though the final decision always rests with the IO or DIO).
- The IO will decide whether to grant the request for access after giving due regard to any representations made by a third party.

14. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION IN TERMS OF POPIA

- The Company is committed to protecting data subject's right to privacy and ensuring that data subject's personal information is protected. All the measures will be taken in order to give effect the constitutional right to privacy, to promote the protection of information and to regulate the manner in which personal information may be processed, by establishing conditions in accordance with POPIA.
